「宮島の水道の歴史」

~A message to the editors of "The History of Miyajima"~

On Miyajima, where the entire island is considered a sacred object, it has been said since ancient times that "the land Damaging (excavating) was prohibited.
Therefore, agriculture did not develop easily, and the availability of "drinking water," which is essential for daily life, was difficult.
It wasn't easy to maintain either.

• "Smartphone Class for Seniors" •

September 4th, 11th, 25th

Capacity: 15 people (45 applicants)

In September, everyone seriously learned how to use Google Maps and other applications. It was such a popular session that we'll be holding an encore session in December!

•10/2•23 Capacity: 15 people

In October, we focused on learning about PayPay. Everyone worked hard to take on the challenge and ride the wave of the cashless era!

•2nd Hatsukaichi History Lecture

"The Charm of Tsuwano's Culture and History"

October 14th, 70 participants

Mr. Koji Yamaoka, Chairman of the Tsuwano Town International Exchange Association

—From the survey—•I learned many things I didn't know, and the relationship between Tsuwano and Hatsukaichi was explained very clearly and enjoyably. •The overview of Tsuwano made me want to learn more. •I learned that there are three aspects to the relationship with Hatsukaichi through the Tsuwano Road. •I was able to feel closer to Tsuwano.

[Large-scale picture story show] Program: Yansuke and Yansuke and Yansuke and the Eleven Cats

Many children, including those from daycare centers and those who applied through the general public, thoroughly enjoyed themselves in the world of stories. A big thank you to the Kamishibai Club and the Donguri-za group!

ýFrom the surveyý "The puppet show and the picture story show were both fun! I want to read the picture book '11 Cats' again." "There were folktales and stories, and the children watched attentively." "Even my 1-year-old watched intently!! The content was easy to understand, and everyone's comments were wonderful ÿ." "It was my first time seeing a puppet show. I enjoyed it along with the music." "I hope you'll hold events like this again!"

A wolf appears!! The children scream!
